OUR ADVICE WHEN GOING SNORKELLING:

- Always go swimming with a buddy and not alone
- If you do not know how to swim or snorkel, please seek the services of the HUB team
- Be aware that even with a lifeguard on duty who has a lot of ground to cover, you are entering the water at your own risk
- Please refrain from swimming after dark
- Life jackets are available in your villas. We encourage all our guests to wear a life jacket especially if you are not a strong swimmer
- Please stay within our recommended swimming or snorkelling area as explained during your briefing with the team
- Be sure to stay close to shore and reserve enough energy to get back to shore safely
- Weather and sea conditions change regularly please check with a member of our HUB team before you go swimming or snorkelling
- Usage of inflatable items are prohibited in the sea for safety reasons

The Nut

- Mystique Garden – produces herbs and vegetables used in our kitchens.
- Sweet Spot – Dedicated to growing sweet potatoes.
- The Plantation – Producing delicious organic bananas, pumpkins and papayas.
- Cluckingham Palace – Home of the happiest chickens in the Maldives. These hens gobble up our kitchen waste and provide the occasional fresh egg for the children to collect.
- Hydro Garden – a water and energy-efficient way to grow lettuce and other greens.
- Microgreens station – grown adjacent to the main kitchen so chefs can pick them as needed, bursting with freshness.

Inclusivity and Accessibility at Amilla

Amilla is the first resort in the world to be certified by IncluCare as an inclusive resort.

In February 2024 Amilla has been awarded 'Responsible Hospitality Partner of the Year' by Forbes Travel Guide in recognition of our commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion, as well as environmental sustainability.

We embrace inclusivity for all guests, we modify the resort as we learn what works best, and our team undergo training to ensure we support guests in a sensitive, kind and caring way so everyone can enjoy the paradise on earth that is the Maldives

Amilla is a member and supporter of The Conscious Travel Foundation, our local contribution is to NGO Villi Joali whose core values are resilience, inclusivity and caring.

Our aim is to make accessibility features feel like an integrated part of the resort.
